

I am a member of the public, whose interests you are commissioned to represent. The corporate takeover of the media needs to be rolled back, not exacerbated. Caving to corporate control makes the Commission slaves of Money, instead of the Corporations working as Clients of the Commission. Somebody has it backwards.